

Theme: CHALLENGING THE ORDINARY

The OSLHA Program Committee is now accepting Call for Papers submissions for our 2019 Annual Convention. We encourage program submissions from all segments of our diverse work settings, particularly those that integrate scientific information with evaluation and treatment procedures and topics that maximize interaction and discussion among attendees.

Be Prepared to Provide the Following on your submission form:

IDENTIFYING INFORMATION

1. Title of Proposed Course: (50 Characters or less, Please Note Only the first 50 Characters will be published!)
2. Contact Info for Lead Presenter and Names/Emails of All additional presenters
3. Biographical Information of All Presenters (brief)

CONTENT INFORMATION

1. Presentation Format
 - Short Course (3 hours)
 - MiniSeminar (1 ½ hours)
 - Poster Session * Posters are displayed Saturday, 8:00 a.m.-3:30 p.m. Authors must present content live from 2:00-3:30 p.m.
2. Abstract of proposal: An overview of not more than 50 words
3. Measurable Learner Outcomes: 3 Required
4. Level of Learning Difficulty: (Introductory / Intermediate / Advanced)
5. Proprietary Interest
6. Time Ordered Agenda
7. Topic Area(s): Identify the Topic Area(s) below that best fit your course content:
 - Alternative & Augmentative Communication (AAC)
 - Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD)
 - Acquired Neurogenic Disorders
 - Audiology: Adult or Pediatric
 - Dysphagia
 - Child Language & Literacy
 - Cultural and Linguistically Diverse (CLD) Topics
 - Ethics
 - Fluency
 - Professional/Academic Issues: Private Practice, Coding/Billing, Etc.
 - Speech Sound Disorders: Apraxia, Articulation, Phonology, Etc.
 - Student Content
 - Supervision
 - Technological Applications: Telehealth, Apps, Software, Etc.
 - Voice
9. Audio/Visual Equipment Needed: Specify equipment needed for your presentation.
Each classroom will be equipped with LCD Projector/Screen for PowerPoint and wireless lavalier microphone. All speakers are responsible to bring own Laptop with power cord and any needed Apple or Surface HDMI/VGA adaptors

Submit Your Proposal electronically using the fillable Call for Papers Submission Form at:
<http://www.ohioslha.org/wp-content/uploads/2018/05/2019CallforPapersAp.pdf>
by September 15, 2018.

If you do not receive an e-mail confirming receipt of your paper within one week of submission or if you have difficulty submitting papers electronically, please contact: oslhaprogram@ohioslha.org or call 800.866.6742